HERE ARE SOME GREAT PLACES FOR YOU TO VISIT...

And they're handpicked for their environmental sustainability too!

ANNA LOKA

9

Anna Loka is one of Cardiff's first 100% vegan café. A place where not only vegans, but all food lovers, can come and experience delicious vegan food in a relaxed and friendly environment. Opened in July 2015, it is run by Hare Krishna monk, Adam and located in Roath.

THE GREENERY KITCHEN

4

The Greenery Kitchen is a small business located in Cardiff's indoor market. The kitchen is 100% plant based and serves vegan lunches along with offering vegan cooking courses and a catering service. They pride themselves on using locally sourced and seasonal plant-based foods in their menu and thus, sustainability is at the forefront of their business with their core value being "Eat Like The world is Ending".

RE DUCE USE CYCLE

CYCLE TRAINING WALES

Cycle Training Wales is increasing access to cycling and reducing the number of bikes going onto the scrapheap. They take in unwanted and abandoned bikes, recondition them, and then sell them to the general public at their workshop sales. They also pick up from Cardiff Council's Recycling Centres.

PETTIGREW BAKERIES

11

Pettigrew Bakeries is an independent bakery and shop open 7 days a week, supplying local independent businesses with Wholesale products. They are at the Riverside Farmers Markets in Roath on Saturday & Riverside on Sunday every week. Their team of local bakers use both traditional and Artisan techniques to create brilliant handmade real bread and much more using ingredients from local Welsh producers.

CANNA DELI

Canna Deli is an independent, mini-market, which will specialize in "artisan cheese, award winning Welsh produce and fine food." There's an array of Welsh cheeses available, but there's lots of other produce with provenance on offer – like cured meats, sausages and bacon from Charcutier Ltd and wine and cider from Pant Du Vineyard in Snowdonia.

10

The menu at DARK at ranges from flatbreads and kebabs to pizzas to small plates, with a 'nose to tail' ethos playing a big part. DARK will continue Dusty Knuckle's long-standing commitment to sustainability and will source almost exclusively from local, independent, and high-welfare suppliers. As a result, the menu is likely to change regularly, led by what's available seasonally and what trusted suppliers recommend.

RIVERSIDE MARKET

Riverside Market is the original Cardiff Farmers' Market and can be found every Sunday opposite Principality Stadium. The market is a showcase for some of the best food producers in Wales, reducing the carbon footprint of transportation. Some of the local farmers offer deliveries.

Despite its lack of proximity to the more urban areas as well as the west of Cardiff, the site encompasses a clean, well-organised layout - allowing lower queue times and less traffic. Every review of the new site is rated as 5-star, which state the staff are nice and helpful.

It is more accessible to the urban areas and the west of Cardiff unlike the above, and the staff are said to helpful. Although citizens find it more comfortable to get rid of their waste, it has many critical reviews complaining about the lack of punctuality, responsiveness and cleanliness due to debris.

EVEN MORE WONDERFUL PLACES FOR YOU...

And again they're all environmental sustainability too!

LUNA'S VEGAN CORNER 7

Located in the Roath area of Cardiff, it is a family run local restaurant established in 2019. All items on the menu are 100% vegan and "a passion for delicious food, conscious living and a passion for kindness to animals" are the core values of the business. These values harbinger environmental qualities that are at the forefront of Cardiff's sustainability movement.

FLAMINGO'S VINTAGE UK 13

Flamingo's is a vibrant shop offering sustainable and, of course, affordable clothing which sources its items through their 'recycle, reuse, relove' idea. Found in the Capital Shopping Centre, it's the place to go for all your clothing needs, with upcycling always on the go.

RIPPLE LIVING 8

Ripple is Cardiff's first not-for-profit zero waste store. There is a large range of products from metal straws to food and even ethical clothing. Ripple's aim is to make people in Cardiff more aware of their impact on the planet and grow awareness of plastic consumption.

MARTIN PLAYER BUTCHERS

Martin Player is an award-winning butcher in Whitchurch, Cardiff. They have built up a reputation in supplying the very best free-range meat and poultry to the people of Cardiff. The importance of first-class animal welfare is paramount at Martin Player high class butcher. They are proudly one of only 121 butchers to be accepted into the Q Guild.

MOTHER NATURE 5

Brand new, innovative & totally unique plant-based café & bar Mother Nature boasts a relaxed, 100% plant-based restaurant vibe. They work closely with their coffee supplier and make sure to grind, weigh and extraction time every cup of coffee that is served to you. Their ethos is quite simple really; Make super tasty food and drink whilst simultaneously keeping it vegan.

WILD THING

Wild Thing cafés are plant-based cafés with social goals, serving plant-based, seasonal, local & organic food in Grangetown and Cathays. Their Grangetown café focuses on an all-day brunch menu, a warm cosy atmosphere for slow brunches and catch-ups. Wild Thing Cathays at Embassy Café provides light breakfasts and lunch perfect for those who live, work or study nearby. They also offer catering.
